The Princess Grace Foundation held their "A Dress To Change the World" charity event on July 27, 2013 in Water Mill, New York.

Sponsored by Dom Pérignon, with refreshing Dom Pérignon Champagne Cocktails for all, the charity event featured a runway fashion show showcasing some very pretty dresses and gowns.

Held at 6 p.m. at Pheasant Cove Court in Watermill, the Private Catwalk Show Benefit raised $200 per attendee.

The event was in tribute to Princess Grace herself, the American actress Grace Kelly who married Monaco's Prince Rainier III.

Guests were treated to performances from singers Eric Heatherly and Yolanda Johnson, live musicians and a backdrop of a model on a pure white horse, donning a strapless mint green gown, with a dashing costumed attendee.

The Princess Grace Foundation USA has a mission to identify and assist emerging artists in theater, dance and film by awarding grants in the form of scholarships, apprenticeships and fellowships.

Attending the charity event in style were Vice President of Dom Perignon Trent Fraser, fashion designer Jeff Garner of Prophetik, singer Amy Treitel, Toby Boshak and Lynda Rufo. Enjoy the slideshow of highlights from the event.
